PUBLIC ELECTIONS (DISTRICT ASSEMBLY) REGULATIONS, 1993<sup>1</sup>

[C.I. 4]

[[Article 51) (11th November, 1993)]

1. Local Government electoral area

The electoral areas specified in the third column of the First Schedule to the Instrument establishing a District Assembly shall be the local government electoral area for the purposes of District Assembly elections.

2. One member for each electoral area

Each electoral area shall be represented by one member in a District Assembly.

3. Agents of candidate

(1) For the purposes of a local government election a candidate may appoint one agent to attend at the polling station to witness the poll and the counting of votes.

(2) A candidate may appoint not more than two agents to attend at the electoral area centre for purposes of collating the votes from the polling stations.

4. Submission of member's name to the Secretary of the Assembly

After a candidate has been elected a member of a District Assembly, the Commission shall inform the secretary of that Assembly, of the name of the candidate elected.
